Chhapra water projects ready, PM likely to open

H K Verma

Chhapra: Prime Minister Narendra Modi is likely to inaugurate the water supply projects in Chhapra through videoconference on September 15.

Four water towers, 9 tube wells and 9 pump houses have been constructed by BUIDCO under the AMRUT Scheme of central government.

The projects will benefit the residents of Chhapra Municipal Corporation area, said S S Pandit, the executive engineer of BUIDCO (Saran), on Wednesday.

He said 670 dwellings have been provided connections and the residents of Rouza, Police Lines, Shyam Chak and Gandak Colony would be benefited in the first phase of this scheme, added BUIDCO sources here on Wednesday.

CBI seizes papers from Nawada head post office

Debashish.Karmakar @timesgroup.com

The CBI has initiated a probe into embezzlement of more than ₹5.5 crore of public money. The CBI sleuths also quizzed some officials Town police station in Nawada on May 9 last year. Later, the state government on November 1, 2019 recommended the case for a CBI probe.

Sources said the postal department had initially unearthed the embezzlement of Rs2.5 crore. "Altogether Rs3.5 crore was withdrawn by the cashier from SBI main branch in Nawada between January 16 and 28, 2019. However, only Rs1 crore was shown deposited in head post office treasury," CBI sources said. Later, the embezzled amount increased up to Rs5.5 crore.

"Ambika and Kapildev had allegedly purchased immovable properties worth several crores in Nawada," they said. The CBI is also investigating the embezzlement of huge amount of public money from Patna GPO.

An FIR was lodged on October 9 last year against five postal department employees and some other unknown persons.

Civil court lawyers abstain from work

Debashish.Karmakar @timesgroup.com

Patna: The functioning in Patna civil court was hit on Wednesday as lawyers abstained from routine legal work to protest the murder of their colleague Harendra Rai (55) near Sarari under Naubatpur police station area in western Patna on Tuesday. The lawyers would abstain from work till Friday, Harendra Rai was shot dead on Tuesday.

Way to the court from his village at Alipur. Patna civil court bar association president Ashok Kumar Sinha said, "We will abstain from routine legal work till Friday. Further decision would be taken on Monday." He said the bar demands Rs50 lakh compensation from the government to Rai's family.

Patna SSP Upendra Kumar Sharma said Santosh Kumar, one of the three named accused, was arrested on Wednesday. He said intensive raids were going on to nab the other accused in the case.

Nadda to visit state tomorrow

Abhay Singh

Patna: BJP national president J P Nadda's two-day poll-related visit to the state will begin on Friday. He will interact with party's top brass, besides traditional professional caste groups from the countryside and women kisans (farmers), including Padma Shri award winner Rajkumari Devi, who is popular as Kisan Chachi. After reaching Patna on Friday evening, Nadda will hold organizational meetings, BJP state general secretary Devesh Kumar said. He will also interact with the 70-member steering committee headed by Union minister Nityanand Rai, and might also meet the core committee members.

Nadda will fly to Darbhanga on Saturday to have sessions with fishermen's community and the makhana growers. From Darbhanga, he will visit Muzaffarpur to meet the women 'kisans' from Sitamarhi and Samastipur besides Muzaffarpur at Paru.

'Those who refuse to get tested for Covid to be booked'

Gaya: Gaya district magistrate (DM) Abhishek Singh has directed the officials to book the people living in containment zones if they refuse to undergo Covid-19 test. As per the SOP, it is compulsory for all the residents of containment zones to undergo test. However, after the Covid-19 situation was reviewed in the district on Tuesday evening, it was revealed that many people had refused to get themselves tested, thereby diluting the ongoing campaign against the pandemic.

RJD netas light lanterns against 'unemployment'

Sheezan.Nezami @timesgroup.com

Patna: RJD leader Tejashwi Prasad Yadav, his mother Rabi Devi and elder brother Tej Pratap Yadav lit lanterns after switching off the lights of their residence for 9 minutes at 9pm on Wednesday as a symbolic protest against unemployment and privatization of government institutions. Later, Tejashwi said, "Nitish Kumar has never talked about issues like unemployment, migration, poverty or industrialization. Even in his virtual rally, he kept abusing and accusing us. I will suggest that he should meet the unemployed youths and listen to their grievances."

He said though Nitish talks of the end of the lantern era, even now — JD(U) election symbol — is not used. "Now what is the use of the arrow in the era of missiles," he asked and alleged that candidates of a particular caste and region were given employment. RJD workers also lit candles at party offices and other places.

Cong talks about Madhubani issues

Sheezan.Nezami @timesgroup.com

Patna: Congress leaders raised local issues while attacking the NDA government at the virtual rally for Madhubani and Supaul districts on Wednesday. Local Congress leaders talked about migrant labourers, closed sugar mills, the ongoing row over the GI tag for makhana and teaching of Maithili in schools. Congress MLC Prem Chandra Mishra said changing the GI tag of Mithila Makhana to that of Bihar was a controversy and a way to destroy the identity of the region. "We will never let this happen. Can Hajipur bananas be called that of Bihar, or khaja of silao and Bhagalpuri silk for instance are named after the region. Also, the present government had intentionally removed Maithili teaching from schools as they did not want students to study this language," said Mishra.

Former MP Shakeel Ahmad, MLA from Benipatti in Madhubani, Bhawana Jha, former Haryana minister Captain Ajay Yadav and Alka Lamba talked about the plights of migrant labourers.

SuMo asks bankers to give more loans

Abhay Singh

Patna: Deputy CM Sushil Kumar Modi on Wednesday asked the bankers to increase loaning activities under the state's annual credit plan (ACP) in the 10 districts where loan disbursement has been less than 10% of the target. The 10 districts include Banka (6.29%), Arwal (6.29%), Madhubani (7.28%) and Siwan (8.01%). Modi, who is also the state finance minister, asked the bankers to review the situation within the next 15 days.

Addressing the 73rd state-level bankers' committee meeting, he said the state government has provided to pay 15-35% of the capital and interest as subsidy in the handicraft sector and in the commercial farming sector like makhana, fruits and vegetables, honey, maize and seeds that require processing, but the bankers have shown reluctance to provide loans to the farmers. He also noted the poor loaning activities for the footpath vendors, who have to be given Rs10,000 each as loan under Atmanirbhar Bharat programme of the Centre. Of the 14,917 applications submitted, only 3,974 were accepted and the bankers processed only 45 (6.29%) of them. The urban development department has asked the bankers to provide loans to 11 lakh footpath vendors.

Similarly Modi said 2.5 crore farmers with kisan credit cards (KCCs) had to be given Rs2 lakh loan each, but only 69,689 had been given the facility. In the micro small and medium enterprises (MSME) sector, Rs2,051 crore had been disbursed among 1.17 lakh applicants.

Finance department principal secretary S Siddharth also addressed the bankers.
